Re: United States v. Chatrie, No. 19-cr-130

Dear Judge Lauck:

After consulting the Centers for Disease Control's COVID-19 guidelines and relevant travel restrictions and conferring with Google's witnesses, we have concluded that we see no need for Mr. Chatrie to undergo an additional COVID-19 test prior to the March 4, 2021 hearing, assuming that all attendees at the March 4 hearing will be wearing masks and adhering to the Court's social distancing protocols.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Catherine Carroll
